Holy, Holy, Holy God, in calling forth creation from the void, revealing yourself in human flesh, and offering your wisdom to guide us, you manifest your loving concern. Grant that we too would manifest your divine love through the lives we lead, the worship we offer, and the witness we share. Father, Son, and Holy Spirit let your will be done through us. Amen.

We give thanks that you have given yourself for us, and called us to join in ministry with you. Today we give thanks for the accomplishments of our graduates, for the role this church has played in many of their lives, and for the ways you have worked with them and through them, leading them to this moment of celebration. As we return your tithes and add our offerings, help us all to continue learning what it means to live for you. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
