Pamela
Fagan

I am Pam Fagan, and I serve as a substitute teacher at Belin Creative Learning Center.

I am a former middle school teacher with thirty-two years experience. I hold a B.S. and M. Ed. in elementary education, and certification in literacy and Supervision/Administration.

After retirement, I became the director of Children's Ministries at my former church, Rock Presbyterian.

I began serving at the BCLC in April of 2023, after my husband and I relocated in 2022. I have three adult children, my daughter Keely, and twin sons Connor and Ian.

I enjoy walking, reading, and singing. Of course, I enjoy being around the smiling faces of the children at the BCLC.
