

SCAVENGER HUNT

Rules for Scavenger Hunt

- You may work as teams or alone. Feel free to include your friends and family in this challenge. All ages are welcome. Each participant, regardless of age, can be eligible to win a prize. However, to be entered into the prize drawing, ALL participants must submit (or have submitted for them) photo evidence of them at each checkpoint.
- Snap a picture of the completed checklist and email to marym@belinumc.org or bring your completed checklist to the Family Life Center to turn in to Mary, Wendy, or Lara.
- After you have submitted the completed checklist and photos, each team member will receive an entry form for a prize drawing.
- Only one prize entry form per team member will be included in the drawing.
- Entries will not be accepted after November 2.

Have fun, don't cheat! We can't wait to see your pictures!
Prizes will be announced after November 2.

Mary Mallick
Director of Adult Ministries
843.357.5185
marym@belinumc.org

Scan me!

Belin Scavenger Hunt

October 12 - November 2, 2025

Team Name: Contact Number:

Team Members:

Find the grave of someone buried in the Belin cemetery before 1900. Take a photo of team members with the burial marker.

What is the name on the marker:

What is the date of death:

Find St. John's Chapel and take a photo of team members in the chapel. Count the benches. How many are there?

Find the Lion's Club box for eyeglass donations (hint: it is inside the Family Life Center). Take a photo of team placing a pair of glasses (readers are allowed) in the donation box.

If you visit the Belin campus at the right time, you can find the peacocks that like to hang around. Take a team photo that includes one of our visiting peacocks in the background.

Do you know where to find the Gaga ball pit? Take a team photo at the pit.

Take a team photo at the tombstone of Rev. James Belin.

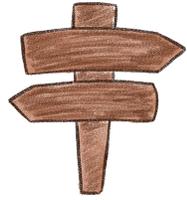

Can you find the Aspergillum? Take a team photo at its location. (Hint: You will see it, but cannot touch it).

Take a team photo at the Seawall Cross at sunset or sunrise.

Take or find a photo of the eagle on the steeple cross.

Write (on the lines provided) the scripture on the back wall of the Belin outdoor library or take a team photo with the scripture.

.....
.....

Take or find a photo of Charlie, the owl, that guards "The Field."

Take a team photo at Nova's Memory Garden. How many inscribed bricks are there?

Take a photo of your team adding a coat donation to the coat drive.

