A Journey of Community and Justice

April 20 – 23, 2026

Hampton, GA
Americus, GA
Montgomery, AL

Discover Koinonia Farm Americus, Georgia

Founded in 1942, Koinonia Farm is a beacon of Christian community, peace, and social justice. As the birthplace of Habitat for Humanity, this historic farm invites visitors into a life of simplicity, service, and racial reconciliation. Walk the peaceful grounds, learn about its pivotal role in the Civil Rights Movement, and experience the legacy of Clarence Jordan's vision.

Explore Legacy Sites Montgomery, Alabama

Step into the powerful story of racial justice at the Legacy Museum and the National Memorial for Peace and Justice. These sites, created by the Equal Justice Initiative (EJI), trace the journey from slavery to mass incarceration and honor the lives lost to racial terror lynchings. Prepare for a moving, transformative experience that deepens your understanding of America's history.

Grow friendships within the Belin Memorial UMC Family

Community is built in shared experiences. On the bus, during the stops, overnight at a Christian retreat center, and over two nights in downtown Montgomery, you will make new friends and deepen ongoing friendships.
